

House Resolution No. 2052

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to honor a very special couple who have embarked upon a new life together; and

Whereas, this legislative body recognizes the significance of the institution of marriage as a vital foundation of American society and wholeheartedly believes that a successful union can be achieved only through a loving relationship of mutual honor, respect, and trust; and

Whereas, Clifton Bell and Amy Gasperson-Harris of Auxvasse, Missouri, will be joined in Holy Matrimony by exchanging their sacred nuptial vows during a beautiful wedding ceremony on June 7, 2003, at Auxvasse Main Street Courtyard; and

Whereas, Clifton and Amy are entering this new chapter in their lives with hope and optimism for success that can surely be achieved through the strength of the love so deep in their hearts; and

Whereas, Clifton and Amy rejoice in the confidence that their love and commitment will grow each and every day of their marriage; and

Whereas, Clifton earned an AAS degree in medium/heavy truck technology at Linn Technical School and is employed as a diesel mechanic at Bell Brothers, LLC in Auxvasse, while Amy, who earned an AAS degree in early childhood education, is continuing her education at William Woods University pursuing a BA degree in elementary education while working at Audrain Head Start Preschool in Mexico; and

Whereas, Clifton and Amy's dream of becoming husband and wife received the blessings, love, and encouragement of their many family members and friends, including their parents, Pamela and Paul Dubbert of Laddonia, David and Mary Harris of Portland, and Janice and Arthur Bell of Auxvasse:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Clifton Bell and Amy Gasperson-Harris as they pledge their love to each other in the presence of God and man and in wishing them nothing but happiness, good health, and prosperity as husband and wife in the many years ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the future Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Bell.
